

The AEDC Honor Guard at UTSI (Photo by David Housch)

9-11 Remembering Heroes

Above right, a crowd gathered at the center's F-105 Thunderchief static display, where the Let's Roll noseart is displayed, applauds AEDC fire fighter David Morrison, right. Morrison put his poem Remember 9-11 to music, and performed it for AEDC's 9-11 ceremony. See the words to Morrison's poem on page 16. (Photos by Claude Morse)

Above, a family gathers at Waggoner Park, Tullahoma, to remember fallen heroes and victims of 9-11-01. (Photo by David Housch) Below, AEDC Commander Col. David J. Eichhorn speaks to center personnel and community leaders at AEDC's ceremony. (Photo by Claude Morse)

Below, AEDC Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Marty Nutter offers a prayer at Manchester's ceremony. (Photo by Susan Frost)

Left, The AEDC Fire Department displayed a memorial wreath in front of the building housing the center's fire department and emergency vehicles. The wreath paid tribute to the firemen, policemen and other emergency response members who lost their lives responding to the 9/11 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. The center personnel also rang the house bells at times coinciding with the times of the collapse of the first and second towers of the WTC. (Photo by Philip Lorenz III)

United We Stand reads a homemade sign at the Waggoner Park ceremony Sept. 11. Community and AEDC people gathered for a time of memorial fellowship. (Photo by David Housch)